Sinisters Claim the Right to Se Heard-Warerawink Says He Had No Chance to Defend Himself, and Will Appeal to the Synod. The judicial commission appointed by the New York Prosbytery on Oct. 4 to review the case of Herman Warszawiak, the converted Hebrew missionary, who was found guilty of gambling and other immorality, and suspended from the communion of the Presbyterian Church, reported to a special meeting of the Presbytery yesterday that it unanimously affirmed the judgment of the session in all respects. An hour after the judgment of the commission had been read the Moderator, upon a point of order, decided that the meeting had been called irregularly, and that the report of regular meeting of the Presbytery next month, Missionary Werszawiak, through his counsel gave notice that he would appeal to the Synod.

About fifty ministers were present in the lecture room of the First Presbyterian Church at Fifth avenue and Twelfth atreet, when the Presbytery convened to receive the report of the commission. The Rev. W. D. Buchanan was Moderator. The Rev. George F. Birch Secretary of the commission, read the report, affirming the conviction of Warszawiak. The judgment was dated Oct. 14, and was signed by the Rev. Jesse F. Forbes, Moderator of the commission, and by the Rev. George F. Birch, George Nixon, J. E. Bushnell, and C. C. Savage, and Elders Thomas F. Strong, Frederick Blume, and Heary W. Jessup. Dr. J. G. Patterson of the East Harlem Church, who had been appointed counsel for the mis sionary, arose instantly after the reading of the indement and protested against registering it. asserting that the accused had not had a hearing before the commission, and that he, himself as counsel, had not occur allowed to have even three hours in which to prepare his defence, notwithstanding that the prosecution had con-sumed forty hours in hearing the 300 pages of testimony against the accused. He insisted that the action of the commission was illegal and unconstitutional, and that its finding was null and void and of no effect. He declared that he hadn't had a chance to present his client's side of the case. de of the case. Moderator Buchanan decided that under the Moderator Buchanan decided that under the rules in the book of discipline the Presbytery could only register the adverse Judgment without discussing its morits, and that the remedy of the accused was in an appeal to the Synod.

A lively discussion followed. The Rev. Dr. Mulialy protested that he thought the members of the Presbytery were something more than "blocks of wood," gathered together simply to sit in silence white the clerk registered the finding of the commission. He thought the Presbytery ought to have something to say about rejecting or accepting the judgment. The Rev. Dr. Charles S. Robinson was more emphatic. He protested vigorously against the Presbytery's being transformed into a mere phonograph, and asked the commission for a direct answer to the question whittier or not an opportunity had been given to Warszawiak to be heard.

"The commission," he exclaimed, "has no right to make a decision until they try the case, and they cannot try it unless the accused is heard. Never since Jesus Christ was tried has such a thing been thought of as trying a man without a hearing. Both divine law and human law forbid such a course."

The Moderator repeated his decision that the Presbytery could not act upon the judgment, and added:

"If we were allowed to reopen the entire merits of the case here, it would make a bur-

Presbytery could not act upon the judgment, and added:

"If we were allowed to reopen the entire merits of the case here, it would make a burlesque of the action of the commission, and we should injure the interest that we are endeavoring to conserve."

Dr. Mullaly put in mother protest at this juncture against "the Presbyters sitting like a tot of blocks," and the Rev. Dr. Sherer, although in favor of the action of the commission, raised the point that the Presbytery was in Illegal session because its members had not received the requisite ten days notice.

Dr. Patterson refused to waive this technicality in Warszawiak's behalf, and Warszawiak arose and began to protest on his own account."

What are you afraid of I" he cried. "Why what are you afraid of I" he cried. "Why do you always apply gag law to me."

But the Moderator, by dint of pounding with the gavel, tinsily silenced him and declared the meeting illegal. This was a mere formality, as the judgment will be registered at the regular meeting of the Presbytery next month. That result is certain, because there were only two negatives to an appeal from the Moderator's ruling that the Presbytery, having appointed a judicial commission, must abide by its finding.

A motion to adjourn was suspended to allow Dr. Patterson to put in eight exceptions to the judgment of the commission and to announce that he would take an appeal to the Synod from the commission's judgment. One of the exceptions was the introduction by the prosecution of an affidavit from one of Warszawiak's former witnesses that the missionary knew that his wife intended to go to the few. Dr. Hall's church on June 19 tast, when the judgment of the session was read, and she protested and was led out of the church against her will.

After adjournment several members of the commission made the statement that Warszawiak had declined three different offers of the commission roughly in time to present the case. First, they offered him five days, they said, then three, and then one, but he refused each offer. This is a flat contradiction of Dr. Patterson's assertion that he did not get a chance to defend the accused.

The Rev. Dr. John Hall, who was understood to still favor Warszawiak, was not present yesterday. One of his assistants trought word to the Presbytery that the clergyman was detained by two other engagements.

ARREST BY A DRUNKEN POLICEMAN. Prisoner, a Hotel Keeper, Discharged-Police-

David Unger, keeper of a Raines law hotel at the Bowery and Bleecker street, was charged yesterday in Centre Street Court with violating the Liquor Tax law. The complainant against him was Policeman James Welch of the Mulberry street station, who arrested Unger on Bunday.

Lawyer Mark Alter produced five witnesses to prove that Policeman Welch was drunk en he entered the hotel. He was served with a sirloin steak, fried potatoes, and two bottles of Basa's ale. When a bill of 75 cents was presented Welch declared he would not pay over 60 cents for the meal, and arrested Unger.
Magistrate Mott discharged Unger from custody on this evidence. Capt. Albertson and Roundsman Tubbs, who wore in court, said that at 3 o'clock yesterday morning, while still under the influence of liquor, Welch entered Reinheimer's saloon at Flizabeth and Houston streets and demanded a drink. It was refused him, as he was in uniform, and he smashed $8 worth of glassware which was behind the bar. Capt. Albertson will prefer charges against Welch at Police Headquarters, where four other charges of intoxication while on duty are pending trial. a sirloin steak, fried potatoes, and two bottles Business Troubles. Denuty Sheriff Butler has received an execution against Bates & Foulke, dealers in milk and butter, who had a dairy restaurant at 462 Hudson street. It is for $2.328 in favor of Job Bates on a firm note. The parties are Charles S. Bates and John B. Foulke. The Sheriff has also received nine executions, aggregating $3,100, against another Charles S. Bates, a pariner in the late firm of Carpenter, Howard & Co., dealers in gas and electric fixtures, of 289 Fourth avenue.

CAPT. COLLIGAN'S CASE. Hot Shot from Mendquarters for Company P.

ALBANY, Oct. 25,-Adjt.-Gen. Tillinghast has approved the recommendation of Judge Advo-cate-General Stillman F. Kneeland of Brooklyn, that no court-martial be appointed to try the charges against Capt. M. J. Colligan of Company F of the Forty-seventh Regiment Brooklyn. The first charge against the Captain was that he had collected $10.85 from members of his company and had failed to make an accounting. The Judge Advocate says that, though the Captain's conduct in this matter is open to criticism, there is nothing to show that the money was not paid over on demand. As a result of this charge, made against the Captain by a member of the company, resolutions were adopted by the company, in the Captain's pres ence, condemning the action of the member who preferred the charges, and affirming faith in the Captain. After the resolutions were adopted Lieut. Butcher, who made the original complaint, en-

After the resolutions were adopted Lieut.
Butcher, who made the original complaint, entered the formal charge against both Colligan and Private Wellington, who introduced them, that they had violated the rules which prohibit the censuring of others in the military service.
The Judge Advocate says:

"It is especially remarkable that the officer, then under charges, should have been present when these resolutions were passed and have given his tacit approval to so improper an act."

The Judge Advocate states that in adopting such resolutions the organization has shown a marked ignorance or a wilful disregard of the fundamental principles of discipline, but advises that no court-martial be ordered on any of the charges. He recommends, however, that the Commander-in-Chief express his strong disapproval of the conduct of the Captain and the members of the company in criticising the officer who made the charges. In passing upon the report of the Judge Advocate, Adjt. Gen. Tillinghast says that Gov. Black, as Commander-in-Chief, fully concurs in the opinion rendered by the Judge Advocate, and accordingly dismisses the charges preferred, but directs attention to the fact that such violations cannot be excused on any grounds; that they showed lack of discipline and a great lack of true soldierly qualities and spirit; that the regulations prescribe means of redress if any one deem himself wronged, and that hereafter such violations will receive the treatment which they deserve.

delay the reorganization indefinitely. It also raised the more serious question as to whether the Government had not virtually committed a breach of contract by moving for the postponement of the sale; for one of the assurances that the Reorganization Committee received from the authorities at Washington when it agreed to raise its minimum bid for the Government lien from $45,000,000 to $50,000,000 was that the Government should put in an appearance in 7812 the then pending suits for the foreclosure of the various mortgages upon the Union Pacific properties and acquiesce in the decrees of sale de sired by the representatives of all of the other creditors, including those whose obligations are prior to that of the Government. It may not be generally known that there is a formal written contract between the United States Government and the Union Pacific Reorganization Committee relative to the forelosure proceedings and the payment of the Government indebtedness. The original contract was made with the previous Administration and under it the Reorganization Committee deposited a cash forfeit of 10 per cent, of its guaranteed minimum bid, namely, $4,500,000. This money has remained to the credit of the Government for the last cight months, and should the Reorganization Committee fail to comply with the terms of the contract it will be forfelted to the United States. The present Administration insisted upon a modification of the original contract. and in consequence the Reorganization Committee advanced its guaranteed minimum bid $5,000,000. It obtained from the Government for this concession a formal pledge to expedite foreclosure proceedings. The fact that the Union Pacific properties were to be sold as soon as legal requirements could be compiled with has been known to every banker, financier, and capitalist of importance, both here and alroad, in fact, to the entire international financial community, for many months past; yet no combination of capital outside of that formed by the Reorganization Committee has made its appearance as a prospective bidder for the properties, nor has any one else taken any steps toward reorganis-ing the property, liquidating the Government claim, and extricating the security holders from their unfortunate predicament. So far as can be learned, therefore, hopes that are entertained at Washington of a higher bid for the Government claim than that guaranteed by the Reorganization Syndicate are based upon the unsubstantial, speculative, and blackmailing scheme which was promoted by a disreputable newspaper last week and which has now been thoroughly exposed. The action of the Government in moving for a postponement of the sale was generally described in Wall street yesterday, not by speculators and others whose views might be blased by the course of the market, but by officers of institutions and representatives of business 10 FWARG 13 13 13 14 18 interests as nothing less than a breach of contract of the course of the market, but by officers were functions, $13,75; internal revenue, $500,300; miscellaneous, $33,608. tion of so important and complicated a system as the Union Pacific was deplored on all sides, that feeling was overshadowed by fears of the effect upon confidence, both here and abroad, of the lack of appreciation shown at Washington of the binding character of a contract. In view of the enormous interest at stake and appreciating the losses that would be sustained by the Government, as well as by the thousands of Union Pacific security holders here and in Europe who have intrusted their interests to the Reorganization Committee, should the reorganization be indefinitely deferred by the shifting of the responsibility for settling the United States indebtedness from the executive to the legislative branch of the Government, the Reorganization Committee promptly announced to-day that it would oppose the motion for an adjournment of the sale and would, if necessary, bid an amount for the Government Hen equal to the total of the principal and accrued interest. Further details of the programme of the Reorganization Committee and of the developments at Washington and else-where regarding this most important matter are printed in another column of THE SUN.

The minor considerations affecting prices or the Stock Exchange were fears that seem hardly justified by the information that has come to hand of an impending severance of diplomatic relations between this country and Spain These fears appeared to be more pronounced in London than here, where, in connection with a more active money market, they caused an average decline of nearly a point in American securities before business was resumed upon the domestic Stock Exchange this morning. That circumstance naturally in fluenced the early trading, and as substantial interests are naturally holding aloof from the market, pending the elections and the severance of relations between the Government and the Union Pacific property, professional operators found it comparatively easy to depress prices. London sold a few stocks, and there was a moderate amount of local liquidation. The heaviest and most effective selling was of Union Pacific, which closed 3% points lower than on Saturday. This decline is equal to nearly 80 $\pi$ cent, of the last installment of the assessment paid by Union Pacific stockholders to preserve their equity in the property and to assist in its physical and financial rehabilitation. Chicago Gas, which was second in respect to activity, was exceptionally strong on buying influenced by the declaration of the usual quarterly dividend of 119 @ cent. Sugar Refining was conspicuously weak, partly because the by declines of to to to a cent a pound in the prices of refined sugars. The decision of the Treasury Department relative to the levying of countervailing duties upon sugars imported from the Netherlands was also a depressing factor. The Granger stocks, and possibly the railway list generally, were unfavorably affected by the protracted consideration by the Supreme Court of the United States of the Nebraska maximum rate case. As all of the decisions of the lower courts in this case have been against the constitutionality of the Nebraska maximum rate law and one of those decisions was rendered by a Judge now sitting upon the Supreme Court bench, it would seem to be reasonable to infer that the final decision will support the findings of the lower courts. The market as a whole was fairly active, and transactions were very well distributed. The closing was heavy at about the lowest prices, and for the great majority of the list these were materially below the final figures of
